Fall Wednesday Nights for Adults

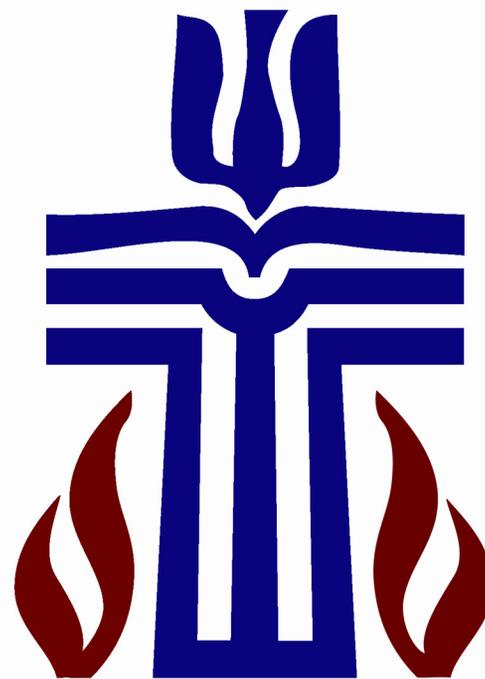

Starting on Wed., Sept. 6, join Randy Master and Joanne Olson-Biglieri in the 10 week Disciple Bible Study series Invitation to the Psalms. The class will be held from 7-8:30 in the Forum Room

Come study these wonderful prayers of lament, praise, love, wrath, grace, repentance, faith and uncertainty, giving voice to all aspects of our human experience. During two weekly video segments, you will have a varied presentation of individual Psalm texts, including dramatic reading, music, dance, and images. Listen to insights into specific Psalms presented by one of two biblical scholars through an informal, roundtable conversation format. Reading just two chapters of Psalms a week, participants will discover the life-altering stories that will invite them to follow Christ as true disciples.

Classes for Adults
Fall 2017

Sundays for Adults

(9:40-10:40 a.m.)

Families

Parents with older children, teens to post-adolescent, and those whose children have flown from the nest. We will rotate leaders to discuss chapters from several books that focus on faith journeys.

Coordinator: Tom Gilbert (Library, Second Floor)

The Present Word Bible Study

Will consider the theme of the Covenants with God, with weekly readings from both the Old and New Testaments.

Facilitated by class members (Room 205, Second Floor)

Luke for Everyone

The class will study the Third Gospel and learn most of what there is to know about Jesus of Nazareth, including the most important: "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing." We will explore how this master writer and brilliant historian makes his contribution to the witness of the New Testament. Luke's unique interpretation of the Parousia (second coming) is worth the price of admission.

Teacher: Bob Maynard (Room 202, Second Floor)

Theology Class

Will be a study of the various Reformations using the book The Protestant Reformations by Donald McKim (yes, Reformations with an "s"). This is a new book by a renowned scholar. Since this is the 500th anniversary of the Reformation, this is a timely study.

Facilitator: Karen May (Room 204, Second Floor)

Interested in Joining Second Presbyterian?

Classes begin Sunday Sept. 10 and continue through October 1, and will be led by Tom Groome, Interim Pastor.

We will meet from 9:45—10:45 am in the Chapel (3rd floor). The class will join the church on Sunday October 8th.

Please call the church office to RSVP 254-7768.

Young Families

This class provides fellowship and discussion for parents of pre- and elementary school age children. Discussions are centered on applying biblical principles to a variety of contemporary topics selected by the class. Drop off the kids upstairs, grab a coffee and a donut and join us!

Leader: Shawn Caudill (Campbell Room, Second Floor)

20's and 30's

On the last Sunday of the month we will combine with the Young Families Class to continue our podcast listening and discussion. Check the website or the 20's and 30's Facebook page for links to our podcasts.

Coordinators: Martha Renfroe and Pastor Sara Benedetti

Women's Sunday Gathering

Come join this "small group" of women as they read and discuss the book Angels by Billy Graham and then do a Beth Moore study on the book of James.

Leader: Gale Reece (201A)

Forum

Guest speakers on wide-ranging subjects.

See Second Sharing newsletter for monthly schedule.

Coordinator: Kathy Blomquist (Forum Room, 1st Floor)

Thank God it's Thursday!

In the Forum room from 1:00 - 2:30 on Thursdays starting Sept. 14 and meeting weekly until November 16, join Pastor David to discuss Rob Bell's What is the Bible? The setting will be informal, conversational, and will keep the reading load light (30 pages a week).

Among other questions, Bell will help us consider:

- Why should we bother with such an ancient book?
- Isn't it all myths and fairy tales? What about all that violence?
- Isn't it dangerous to take it seriously? Isn't it only for Christians?
- Is it inspired? Can it help us? Just what is the Bible?
