Sundays for Adults

(9:40-10:40 a.m.)

Forum

Guest speakers on wide-ranging subjects. See Second Sharing newsletter and Friday e-blast for upcoming programs. Coordinator: Kathy Blomquist (Forum Room, 1st Floor)

Families

Parents with older children, teens to post-adolescent, and those whose children have flown from the nest. We will rotate leaders to discuss chapters from several books that focus on faith journeys. Coordinator: Tom Gilbert (Library, Second Floor)

The Present Word Bible Study

Daily readings from both the Old and New Testaments and a brief weekly lesson for discussion. The focus for winter is Our Love for God by Trusting Christ with readings from Philippians and Psalms. Spring will concentrate on Discipleship and Mission with readings from Matthew, Luke and Romans. Facilitated by class members (Room 205, Second Floor)

Luke for Everyone

Will focus primarily on Luke's account of Jesus Christ's death and resurrection. Since music conveys meaning words alone are inadequate to express (the resurrection, for example), the class will listen to selections from the Messiah, St. Matthew Passion, A German Requiem, Elijah and Mahler's Resurrection Symphony. Teacher: Bob Maynard (Room 202, Second Floor)

Theology Class

Reading biographies of theologians and other books on theological topics. This semester we will begin with Eugene Peterson's A Long Obedience in the Same Direction, Discipleship in an Instant Society. This book uses the Psalms of Ascent (Ps 120-134), to explore how these Psalms speak to us on our faith journeys today. We welcome folks to join our discussions! Facilitation by class members. Contact Karen May for information. (Room 204, Second Floor)

Young Families

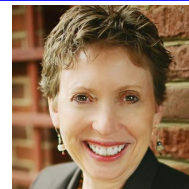

This class provides fellowship and discussion for parents of pre- and elementary school age children. Discussions are centered on applying biblical principles to a variety of contemporary topics selected by the class. Drop off the kids upstairs, grab a coffee and a donut and join us! Leader: Shawn Caudill (Campbell Room, Second Floor)

20's and 30's

On the last Sunday of the month we will combine with the Young Families Class to continue our podcast listening and discussion. Check the website or the 20's and 30's Facebook page for links to our podcasts.
